

About Company

We at our company, N.Pardhan Vegetable & Fruit Powder Export Private Limited are the Best Supplier, Importer & Exporter of a range of spices and fruits, powders. We are a company that started as a major provider of powders that are used in the kitchen and other dish preparations. We make sure that each and every powder that goes through our supply chain is checked thoroughly, and then only delivered to our customer's address.

We are a People's company. And make sure that none of our customers have to suffer because of the defective products. That is why we have a different panel that we have deployed to check for all the powder packets that we receive and then send for supply. We make sure that every quality of the powder is checked thoroughly and is not just skipped in any case.
